We power potential™

Improve your mood and let everyday stress slip away

Unwind and relax by helping your mind quiet the chaos around you. Don't let your personal life, business life, or future commitments make you feel overwhelmed. Our proprietary formulation, based on redox principles, is meant to improve brain cell performance and aid in the production of key chemicals that naturally regulate your mood.*

Relax with REDOXMood

Sometimes you need a mental break, but you don't want to feel sluggish or groggy. REDOXMood can help you separate yourself from external stressors and find balance from within. Find peace of mind and a positive outlook, while taking on the day with confidence.

A state of relaxation

Let our special blend of ingredients naturally help calm your thoughts by supporting neural brain cell activity to help handle overall stress-related distractions. You'll also find balance—both at the cellular and emotional levels—as your brain's cells begin to reach redox homeostasis and perform as they should.*

- Helps to promote a feeling of calmness.*
- Helps the brain and body move into a lower gear.*
- Helps regulate receptors in the central nervous system to balance redox states.*
- Involved in the protein production of important mood regulating hormones.*
- Supports the production of important neurotransmitters to uplift mood.*
